Little Red Cap

There once was a young boy who lived in a small town back of beyond. He was a nice looking guy with fair hair and deep blue eyes. He had smooth skin and a nicely rounded bubble butt. He was a happy-go-lucky kind of kid that everybody liked but nobody seemed to know his name. They called him Little Redcap since he was always wearing a red baseball cap.

He lived with his family in a neighborhood that was not exactly luxurious and he had learned to help his parents by doing errands. One day his mother told him that his grandpa had caught a terrible flu that was keeping him in bed. Little Redcap's mom packed a lunch basket that included a bottle of grandpa's favorite whiskey, and warning Little Redcap to be aware of the traffic and to avoid strangers, she sent him with the basket to grandpa's house.

Grandpa had been living alone for many years ever since grandma ran away with a bearded lady in a circus and never returned. Little Redcap loved his grandpa and enjoyed visiting him since grandpa had a lot of hot magazines and videos that they studied together.

Mom had warned little Redcap about strangers but had said nothing about others. Wolf, a good-for-nothing hoodlum, was hanging out at the street corner. He had a terrible hangover and was horny as hell. He had kept an eye on Little Redcap for quite some time. Little Redcap's bouncing bubble butt made Wolf drool and his cock rock hard. When Wolf saw him coming down the street with his cute bubble butt stretching out his shorts and a whiskey bottle sticking out of a lunch basket, Wolf saw a desirable solution to all his present problems. He decided to cop a cherry and let the kid taste his jutting cock.

"Hey, kiddo, where are you going?" asked Wolf. Little Redcap had seen Wolf hanging around. Though Wolf was hairy, tattooed, and always looked a bit untidy but he was nicely built and friendly.

"My grandpa is ill and I'm taking him something to eat," Little Redcap said.

"Where does your grandpa live?" Wolf asked.

"He lives in the white house on the other side of the park," Little Redcap said.

"That basket looks pretty heavy. Let me carry it for you," Wolf said.

"No, it's not heavy and my grandpa lives on the first floor. I can carry it there myself and besides the key is under the doormat," Little Redcap said.

Wolf did not argue with the boy; he had all the information he needed. "Well, well, well," thought Wolf. "The old man is there alone. I better get there fast. I can easily handle an old sick man and then I shall be waiting for my prey. That juicy bubble butt will be properly fucked in a jiffy," Wolf mused.

"OK, if you're sure you can manage alone. By the way, Redcap, did you know that there are some new video games in the store next to the park? You might be interested in them but don't stay too long or your grandpa might starve," said Wolf.

Wolf took a shortcut through the park and reached grandpa's house within a few minutes. He picked up the key under the doormat and let himself in. The apartment was dark; the old man was too weak to even open the curtains.

"Is that you, Little Redcap?" grandpa asked.

Wolf rushed into the room saying, "No, this is Big Purple Gland and I want you out of that bed real fast." Wolf pulled grandpa out of the bed and pushed him into the bathroom, locking the door after him. "You better keep quiet or I'll have to silence you," shouted Wolf through the door.

Quickly Wolf stripped his clothes off and after returning the key under the doormat jumped into grandpa's bed. He fondled his stiff member while waiting for his prey. Grandpa took his words seriously and not a sound coming from the bathroom.

Meanwhile Little Redcap had gone to look at the new video games but was not able to find any. After a while he gave up searching and went to see his grandpa. As he opened the door and went inside the dark apartment he shouted, "Hi, Grandpa, it's me."

"Come in my son," said a strange, hoarse voice. Grandpa's flu must be really severe, thought Little Redcap. As he entered grandpa's bedroom he saw him buck naked stretched out on his bed. Maybe he's trying to relieve his fever, Little redcap thought remembering how hot he had been when he had a flu last fall.

"Shall I open the curtains?" Little Redcap asked.

"No my son, the light hurts my eyes," hissed grandpa.

"Your eyes look much bigger than usual, grandpa," said

Little Redcap.

"It's just that I want to see all of you, honey butt," Wolf answered.

"Even your hands look much bigger," said Little Redcap.

"It's only so that I can hug and fondle you better, my son," Wolf said.

"I guess I have never seen such an enormous cock either!" said little Redcap.

"Well, it's just for showing you how much grandpa loves you, honey," said Wolf. "You want to touch it? Come over here and feel how hard grandpa's cock is," hissed Wolf.

When Little Redcap approached grandpa's bed, Wolf grabbed him in his arms and pulled the boy into the bed with him. Hardly had Little Redcap realized that he was actually in bed with buck-naked Wolf instead of his grandpa when Wolf peeled off all his clothes. Pressing the helpless boy under his hairy body, he opened his crack and with his fingers stretched his tight butt hole. When the boy began to protest Wolf covered his mouth with his own and shoved his thick tongue into the lad's virgin mouth. Little Redcap fought for a while but since he was in the tight embrace of Wolf's muscular arms it was futile. Actually, Wolf's fingers inside his butt felt kind of exciting. Even the big mouth over his own felt playful and strangely desirable. Soon Little Redcap surrendered to this hungry hunk and his nail-hard nipples and rough stubble rubbed his body as Wolf caressed his butt hole deeper and deeper.

When Wolf took Little Redcap's cock into his hot mouth Little Redcap got his first erection. Wolf's wet tongue rubbed the stiff shaft of Little Redcap's cock and as he pulled the foreskin down, revealed the plump gland for the very first time. Little Redcap felt so proud and happy. But when Wolf took the naked gland into his mouth Little Redcap moaned in the hands of his first orgasm. It made him toss his body and shoot his load into Wolf's mouth.

The minute Wolf pushed grandpa into the bathroom, grandpa knew he had to escape. Wolf had underestimated grandpa. He was still in good physical condition. It was only due to the complete surprise that Wolf managed to push him into the bathroom and lock him in. It took grandpa only a few minutes to escape through the bathroom window to the back alley. The fastest way to find a cop would be the park. When grandpa turned around the corner Little Redcap was just opening the front door. They missed each other just by few seconds. Grandpa's appearance on the street caused quite a stir. An elderly man in his pajamas was not a common sight. He did not have to search for a cop, he was found by one very fast. As grandpa explained to the officer what had happened he did not seem surprised at all. This must be the same guy who has been fucking boys around the ballpark for months. The boys had been so pissed off by his attacks that they had refused to give blowjobs even to officer Williams, whose privilege it had been for years. Officer Williams followed grandpa into the house. As they entered the apartment they heard loud moaning and groaning from the bedroom.

After having his very first orgasm, Little Redcap felt such warmth towards Wolf that he was ready to go to any lengths to please him. Wolf smeared his butt with his spittle and did the same to his own drooling cock. Little Redcap was mesmerized by the sight of Wolf's glistening tool. Sticking up between the smooth and slender thighs of the boy, its ruddy shaft with its bulging veins and swollen knob glistening with Wolf's spittle and precum seemed totally out of proportion. Yet it fascinated Little Redcap to the point of erection again. Wolf smiled as he noticed the lad's reaction. Wolf lifted the boy's ass on his lap and guided his cock to the quivering gate. He took a firm grip on the boy's loins and with a sharp and powerful push shoved his rock-hard cock in. Little Redcap jumped because of the sudden pain but Wolf kept him in a cast-iron grip.

"Relax boy, you are getting real man meat. It's bound to hurt a little, but once you get used to it you will never accept any teeny weenies in your lover's lane," Wolf hissed. Little by little he managed to get it in totally and although little Redcap was sure that his butt would be torn to pieces by this rugged intruder, its movements inside him stirred and stimulated such pure primitive lust in him that he capped Wolf's hairy buttocks into his hands to prevent him from withdrawing.

Panting and tossing he received Wolf's vigorous attacks never letting go of his hairy ass until Wolf began to tremble violently and shoot his hot juices while moaning and groaning as if he was mortally wounded. Wolf fell totally lifeless on top of Little Redcap.

At that precise moment grandpa rushed into the room followed by Officer Williams. In a matter of seconds Wolf was handcuffed to the bed post and grandpa and Officer Williams were asking Little Redcap a lot of questions. Little Redcap told them what had happened and showed what Wolf had done to him. As he showed them his conquered butt hole oozing with Wolf's thick cream he noticed that grandpa's cock had escaped through the fly of his wrinkled pajamas trousers and his stiff shaft had lifted his glowing cockhead up high. Officer Williams was licking his lips and drying his wet palms on his legs.

"Since that creep has brutalized my grandson it's only just that we fuck his brains out before you take him into custody," said grandpa and dropped his pajamas pants.

"He sure is going to regret that he ever messed with him," said Officer Williams opening his fly. To his astonishment Little Redcap saw two mighty weapons revealed in front of him. Grandpa's cock was incredibly thick. The plump gland was on top of a sturdy shaft that looked as thick as a man's wrist. His balls were the size of apples and hung low. Officer Williams had a sinewy and slender cock but it was real long. His balls were tight against the slightly curved shaft. Wolf had not yet recovered when he was turned around and grandpa spread his legs and shoved his mighty member into Wolf's hairy ass. Wolf protested loudly. Crying and swearing he tried to get rid of his tormentor but grandpa was like a cowboy on the back of a wild bull. Each movement Wolf made only helped grandpa penetrate deeper into his tossing ass.

Gradually Wolf stopped protesting and it seemed that panting and shivering he was actually trying to get in as much of grandpa's cock as he could. Grandpa was not mean about it. He was grunting and puffing loudly as he forced more meat up Wolf's delivery channel. Wolf's body was sweaty and trembling violently and he mumbled, "Oh my God," in between desperate moans and groans.

Officer Williams seemed to think that the sight of this forcible penetration was not meant for Little Redcap's eyes and took him to grandpa's kitchen. He lifted Little Redcap onto the table and said, "I'm sorry that you got your first experience in the hands of such a punk as Wolf. It would be a great honor to me if you let me show you how warm and affectionate sex between men can be. I see that you have a thriving hardon and so do I. Let's enjoy each other while grandpa is fucking that creep." Saying that he guided Little Redcap's hand along the rock-hard shaft of his substantial prod. He then knelt between Little Redcap's legs and gorged his dick into his mouth. He was good, no question about it. He made Little Redcap toss and turn on the table, moaning and panting violently just like Wolf was, under the attacks of grandpa's frightful weapon.

When Officer Williams revealed the extremely sensitive gland and gave some rotating rubs with his slippery tongue, Little Redcap lost control and shot his juices into the officer's mouth. While he lay on the table totally drained, Officer Williams spread his legs and began to eat his butt. Officer Williams pushed his tongue very deep into his ass and carefully licked Wolf's cream out of each crevice that he could reach. Well that was a bit too much for Little Redcap. His cock stiffened again.

"Would you like to taste my cock?" Officer Williams asked. "A lot of boys like to suck it. I bet you would like it, too." Little Redcap nodded, blushing with excitement. Officer Williams gave him a few instructions, but they were not necessary. Little Recap was a natural. He was thrilled to see how fast he made Officer Williams lose his marbles. In no time he was moaning and whining louder than Wolf. When the powerful spasms hit him, he shot a load that could have fertilized a small town.

Officer Williams was just kissing Little Redcap very gratefully when they heard grandpa calling them. As they entered grandpa's bedroom they saw Wolf tightly entwined into grandpa and he had been crying. Violent sobs were still shaking his body though he tried to bury his face into grandpa's hairy chest.

"I think we are not going to press charges after all," grandpa said. It turned out that they had had a fantastic fuck. Grandpa's cock had totally subdued Wolf who had no idea that getting fucked could ever be anything like that. Grandpa, on the other hand, had found Wolf's response so irresistible that he had surpassed himself ending in an orgasm that shattered everything he had experienced before. Officer Williams was a bit reluctant but after it became clear that Wolf was going to move into grandpa's house and take care of him and that Little Redcap had actually enjoyed the afternoon he too accepted their decision. To celebrate, they opened grandpa's whiskey bottle and Officer Williams stripped off his uniform to join in the celebration on grandpa's bed.

Later that afternoon Little Redcap insisted on being shown how grandpa had conquered Wolf. He was very proud to be able to endure the attacks that had made a grown man cry but he had to admit that grandpa was a real champion.

When Little Redcap returned home much later escorted by Officer Williams, his mother wanted to hear about grandpa's condition. "I think that his flu is over; at least he's as potent as ever," replied Little Redcap leaving his mother a bit thoughtful.
